- WHO/WHAT:

City of Key West Art in Public Places Board and Monroe County Art in Public Places Committee are Hosting the Annual FAPAP Conference with Invitation for local artists to attend the Pre-Conference on April 29.

- WHEN: Wednesday - April 29, 2015 - 9:00 - 11:00 am

- WHERE: The Studios of Key West – 533 Eaton Street – Key West

TOPIC: Scudding Before the Wind: How to Prevail on the Public Art Sea

Four experts tell their tales & help you navigate the intricacies of being a public artist

- ❖ Christopher Hubbard, Moderator, FAPAP President & Cultural Affairs Specialist for the City of Clearwater
- ❖ Lee Modica, Administrator, Art in Florida State Buildings Projects
- ❖ Terry Olson, Orange County Arts & Cultural Affairs
- ❖ Catherine Woods, Artist, Founder and Director, C Glass Studios

Why: Public Art professionals involved in projects across the State of Florida will convene in Key West to share success stories and lessons learned from their vast experiences in integrating public art into public and private capital construction projects, urban planning initiatives and environmental restoration projects. Attend this unique pre-conference to gain insight into the world of public art. Be immersed and hear about the diverse pieces of the “public art puzzle” including funding, politics and the public art process; from concept development through construction.

Q & A following the panel’s presentation.
